KERR LISTS PROPOSED OUTLAYS, INCOME FOR FIRST YEAR OPERATION

Editors Note: The following is the final report by Leslie Kerr showing facts and figures pertaining to the incorporation of the City of Campbell.

To the best of our knowledge, we have never had such exhaustive and valuable information pertaining to so vital an issue. Mr. Kerr has spent hundreds of hours compiling information from City, State and County records. Kerr is well qualified for such a task, having been for thirty years a federal analytical auditor in Washington, D.C.

Requests for copies of the Kerr reports have come into the Campbell Press from points in California as far north as Berkeley and as far south as Los Angeles.

Because of a severe money stringency and other obstructing influences present in a newly organized city administration ,similar to that of Campbell ,members of the first city council will be faced with many perplexing problems requiring managerial acumen to solve. Yet, even so, all other city councils of recently incorporated cities of California encountered and surmounted difficulties of like character with satisfactory results. With each member of the local city council accepting a full share of responsibility, the citizens of Campbell should have no cause for anxiety concerning final result.

Excepting the property-tax revenues of $26,000, which are to be used exclusively in operating the Campbell fire district, Campbell street lighting district, and Campbell sanitary district, the income expected to become avalable during year ending June 30, 1953, is placed at $48,000.

Manifestly, it is not safe or appropriate to project a budget solely on the total of an assumed income of $48,000. Neither is it a sound business practice to provide for expenditures that will absorb all available monies. On this account, the proposed expenses are limited to a maximum of $28,800, or sixty percent of the probable income.

An arbitary apportionment of the proposed outlays during first year of city operation is:—

Governmental Functions	Campbell 1952-53 Expense	Ratio	8 new Cities	304 Cities 1950
General	$ 7,500	26 pct.	30 pct.	11 pct.
Protection	14,100	49 pct.	45 pct.	31 pct.
Public works	4,300	15 pct.	13 pct.	16 pct.
Other	2,900	10 pct.	12 pct.	42 pct.
Total	28,800	100 pct.	100 pct.	100 pct.

It will be noted that budget estimates for Campbell are in close conformity with averages of eight California cities incorporated during the 1946-1950 period. The ratios are based on first year of city operation in which no property tax revenues were available.

The divergencies indicated as between newly incorporated cities and the combined totals for all California cities is due in large part to such causes as: (1) Incorporation involves considerable legal expense at the beginning of city operations; (2) the available funds of a newly organized city are quite limited and of necessity the greater portion of its income must be used to pay incorporation expenses and to provide for fire and police protection; and, (3) as the financial affairs of a city become stabilized, the city management is at liberty to give more attention to such features as sanitation, charities, education, recreation, etc.

The cost of operating the special fire, lighting, and sanitary districts of Campbell is based on assumption that the entire amount of revenue collected through special assessments will be consumed in the maintenance and operation of these city services, to wit:

Tax Districts	Rate	Amount	Total
Fire	$0.22	$13,200
Lighting	0.33	8,800
Sanitary	$.10	4,000	$26,000
Governmental costs as shown above			28,800
Total city outlays 1952-53			54,800
Anticipated income March 1952 — June 1953			74,000
Theoretical surplus, July 1, 1953			19,200

CITY HALL—Office space is necessary from which to conduct public affairs and to house city records.

The required "outlays" will be to provide for purchase of office furniture and fixtures, such as a calculating machine, typewriter, filing cabinets, desks, chairs, tables, desk lamps, ceiling lights books of account, a balustrade or railing, etc.

PUBLIC LIBRARY—There need be no change in status of the present county library located in Campbell. This library is operated and maintained by means of a special tax (1951-52) of three cents per $100 of assessed valuation. (In reality, a municipal type tax.)

CITY CLERK—The statutory duties of a city clerk are to keep an accurate record of council proceedings and to maintain records of city finances. However, an energetic and capable clerk will have many opportunities to assume greater responsibilities than those specifed as the minimum legal requirements. In fact, this Campbell official is quite likely to find it necessary to be "jack of all trades."

In a small city like Campbell, the public invariably looks upon this person as being the real city manager. And, in actual practice, the clerk's office is the logical place from which to procure reliable information and data relating to local affairs and conditions. In addition, this officer usually acts as the intermediary between the public and the administration, to include heads of city departments.

As a provident measure, it is suggested that all clerical and accounting work be concentrated in office of the city clerk. This could include such features as: clerical assistance to the city treasurer and department supervisors; collection of license and permit fees; conduct of city elections; and, such other duties as may be assigned by the city council.

If, for any reason, the clerk is unable to perform all functions or to serve in a full-time capacity, then this position could be established on a part-time basis. As for example:—the city clerk of Morgan Hill complies with the statutory requirements as a part-time official; details and technical matters being delegated to a full-time deputy clerk.

TREASURER—The statutory duties of this city official are: to receive all monies given him as city treasurer and deposit same in a bank for safekeeping; to countersign all withdrawal checks; and, to make monthly reports of his transactions.

Duties of a Campbell treasurer need not be very arduous, if all clerical work is performed by the city clerk's office. And, at the same time, result in greater efficiency and economy in operating the latter office.

CITY ATTORNEY—The employment of city counsel will necessarily depend on attendant circumstances; possibly on the basis of a retainer and fees. Legal services for Campbell will necessarily be a part-time position.

JUDICIAL (Court)—The writer has been unable to secure precise and satisfactory information for the reader. It appears, however, the city officials of Campbell are not likely to have any choice or jurisdiction in the premises. And, the court fines and penalty collections should be more than sufficient to take care of all court costs.

POST AUDIT—Periodic examinations and audits of the city records and accounts is essential. An "on call" service by a competent accounting firm is most desirable, more especially in case the official city clerk is not an experienced auditor.

PUBLIC WORKS—The activities assigned to this department of a small city generally includes maintenance and operation of streets, bridges, sewers, sewage disposal, water supply, sidewalks, refuse removal and disposition, street-name signs, and houe numbering.

In addition to the foregoing, the public work department of Campbell could also be allotted the responsibiltiy of maintaining all public buildings and grounds, parks and playgrounds, inspection and regulation of buildings and appurtenances, street licenses, which possibly, should be under jurisdiction of the chief of police.

The reader should understand that the costs of such services as repairs to sidewalks, refuse removal, regulatory inspections, etc., are usually assessed against the beneficiary.

The listing of candidates for the city council indicates that one or

EDITORIAL

WHY WE FAVOR INCORPORATION

The Campbell Press emphatically endorses Campbell's move to incorporate (become a sixth class city) and urgently asks its readers to vote YES next Tuesday on the incorporation issue for the following reasons:

There is actual danger in failing to incorporate. There is the very real threat of annexation as evidenced by the recent attempts at strip annexation by the San Jose and Santa Clara governing bodies.

Annexation means absorption, loss of local identity, absentee leadership, disinterested apportionment of funds, and actual loss of income.

There are the "Urban Unincorporated laws," an eventual reality which will set up urban tax districts to charge for streets, fire and police protection. So we are faced with three alternatives: Annex, Incorporate, or become an urban tax district.

There are positive advantages in incorporation. State monies from vehicle, gas and liquor taxes will be alloted to Campbell on the basis of population ONLY IF CAMPBELL INCORPORATES. These monies would increase Campbell's income. To levy more than one dollar per $100 assessed property valuation would require a special election. Court revenues would remain at home. There would be municipal control of the budget. Business franchises unobtainable now will be immediately available with city status.

Police protection, sadly lacking at present, would be provided for more fully under city status.

Incorporation means local zoning laws, a building code with prompt inspections tailored to local needs.

City officials would be citizens of Campbell elected by the people of Campbell to serve the best interests of the city of Campbell. Campbell will be a "power" to reckon with—not a "district" to be tolerated.

VOTE TO INCORPORATE THE CITY OF CAMPBELL.

Of the fourteen candidates on the ballot for City councilman (plus one write in), the two for City Clerk, and one for City Treasurer, the Press is not backing any one individual for office. The Press feels that in all its experience in city affairs, no city has ever had better potential officers from whom to choose. We feel confident that whomever the voters of Campbell select for office, those candidates will do outstanding jobs.

Whether our readers agree with the editorial policy of their paper or not, we feel obliged to urge all voters to exercise their democratic privilege to make their wishes felt by casting their vote in the March 11 incorporation election.

Campbell Phone Prefix FR 8 Means More Than Meets The Eye

According to W. E. Williams, Pacific Telephone District Manager, it would have been a lot easier to name a dozen new babies than it was to pick the prefix FRanklin 8 that will serve Campbell beginning late this year. Prefix names should sound pretty, says Williams, but they also have to work like robots in putting calls through. That means meeting certain technical requirements.

It used to be that the principal measurement for a good prefix was that it be easily understood over the telephone, and not sound similar to other prefixes in the region of use. That left a wide field, because the "Dictionary was the limit" more or less.

The phonetic requirement still exists. People still have to speak the prefixes and even write them occasionally. But something new has been added. Today, with the expansion of dial service and the growth in number of telephones, prefixes must be chosen to fit the dialing codes.

In the operation of dial switching equipment, the letters on the dial are the equivalent of figures. When you dial FR for FRanklin, for instance, you are really dialing "37."

So far it sounds easy. There are 10 openings with 25 letters on the dial. The first opening is not used for prefixes because of possible misses in registering a single dial impulse at the outset of dialing. The last opening is reserved for calls to operator. Consecutive consonants cut the field down still further Just for size, try to make a good name out of the 57 code with J, K, or L for the first letter and P, R, or S for the second.

More and more calls are being dialed direct by long distance operators to and from distant cities and today a large percentage of long distance calls all over the country are dialed direct to the called telephone. This new development makes necessary a numbering plan which will enable automatic switch equipment to handle this cross-country dialing.

To accomplish this, the United States and Canada have been divided into approximately eighty "Numbering-plan areas." In turn, the telephone numbers within each numbering plan area are arranged so that dial switching equipment can send a call to any given telephone in the area.

With so many different considerations and limitations involved, choosing a prefix these days is quite a chore.

Williams explained that the first step is the assignment by engineers of an office code which does not conflict with that of any other office in the community or dialing area. The code for Campbell is 378.

It's easier to remember a prefix name than a long string of numbers, so prefixes are chosen to put the call on the main track to the right central office. Names which are the equivalent on the telephone dial to the first two figures in the dialing code are selected from a standard list which tests have shown are easy to understand, easy to pronounce, and easy to remember by both subscribers and telephone operators all over the country.

These are tested by telephone people in the locality where they

HOTLY-CONTESTED CONTROVERSY TO BE PUT TO ELECTORATE

Campbell voters will go to the polls Tuesday to vote for or against the incorporation of Campbell. The issue, which first attained prominence in June, 1951, when newspaper articles appeared in local and city publications concerning proposed "strip" annexations by neighboring Santa Clara and San Jose, was further heightened by reports of an urban unincorporated law which would set up urban tax districts to charge residents for street, fire and police protection.

The issue, hotly contested in local papers, and in meetings of interested citizens, will be decided after Tuesday's elections.

Fourteen Campbell residents have placed their names on the ballot as candidates for City Council, of which Campbellites will vote for five. They are: J. B. Arends, Jr., Carolyn Coons, J. M. Dahl, Joseph V. Gomes, Verle O. Grizzle, L. W. Harmon, Paul D. Johnson, Leslie Kerr, William H. Morgan, Richard W. Morton, Walter R. Silberbauer, J. Frederic Snyder and E. W. Swan.

Viola Krug and Howard F. Smith are running for the office of City Clerk.

Edward C. Merill is running for the office of City Treasurer.

Polls will be opened from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Registered electors will be sent a map of the exterior boundary of the incorporated area of the city of Campbell and only those qualified as residing within these limits are entitled to vote at this election.

Polling places are IOOF Hall, First and Campbell Avenue; Campbell Union School District Administration Building, 111 N. Third Street, and Campbell Union High School, Campbell Avenue.

Pat Peabody Resigns Post On Plan Commission

Pat Peabody, publisher and radio station owner, had his resignation from the Santa Clara County Planning Commission accepted on Monday.

After six years' service on the commission, Peabody declared personal affairs had of late been "coming into conflict" with his official duties.

He listed as one of the accomplishments of the Commission during his tenure, in which he said he was proud to have had a hand, as location of the County Civic Center site at N. Fir-t and Rosa Streets.

He also declared the county is fortunate to have a man of Nestor Barret's caliber as director of the Planning Commission, and commended other members of the organization for their enterprise and capabilities.

Supervisor Earl C. Campbell, who appointed Peabody, indicated he will have a successor lined up by next Monday. He invited members and anyone interested to submit suggestions to him.

CITY INCORPORATION CHAIRMAN SUMMARIZES LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Lester W. Harmon, local realtor and insurance agent, presents his final views on the necessity for Campbell's incorporation into a city of the sixth class:

"Nine months ago, we, together with a large group of our fellow citizens, took the initiative in a movement to sample public sentiment regarding possible incorporation of the City of Campbell, as a city of the sixth class.

Now, on the eve of the election to determine the issue, we, as General Chairman of the Committee which was formed to consider the proposal, wish to sincerely thank all of the citizens of Campbell for the earnest and careful consideration they have given the matter. Especially we wish to thank every member of the General Committee for their faithful and continuous work. Naturally, there has been some opposition, to be expected and given the same careful consideration as was given the proponents of the plan.

"We are particularly proud of the fact that the entire campaign, if such it may be called, has been, possibly in contrast to some in the past, conducted in a completely friendly, neighborly manner on the part of both proponents and opponents. To quote an ex-president of our country: 'That is the way we planned it,' and is in fact the only way we would have had it. If we did not believe sincerely that incorporation was in the best interest of our fellow citizens, we would be 'against' instead of 'for.'

"We feel that the citizens of Campbell are very fortunate in the type of men and women who are candidates for city offices. We are certain that the election of any five of the fifteen candidates for city council, excluding our own name, will place the first City Government of Campbell in excellent hands. We feel it is particularly fortunate that each candidate is independent, with a complete absence of any clique of any kind.

"We firmly believe that with such men and women at the head of our city government, we will have a city of which we can all be proud, without undue burden upon the citizens. We can take advantage of our strategic position in the fastest growing State in the Union. Or WE CAN STAND IDLY BY and let other communities with more vision and iniative reap the benefits. We can have new business and more business if we all pull together and go after it. SURE, WE WILL PROFIT BY IT, we hope, but in so doing, we will help every other citizen of Campbell to profit in one way or another. Sure, the CAMPBELL PRESS will profit by it, we hope. It is axiomatic that a newspaper profits only as the territory it serves profits.

"The potential business is here and the potential customers are here, if we but make ours a City

SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS PLAY MARCH 13, 14

"George Washington Slept Here" Campbell High's Senior Class of 1952 production, will be presented March 13 and 14, at 8:00 p.m. The play, under the direction of Ken Wallace, assisted by Marilyn Graham, concerns the purchase of an old house by a Mr. Fuller (Ron Gilpatrick), because of a rumor that George Washington once slept in it. Mrs. Fuller (Gwen Robertson) soon discovers that if this is true, George, regardless of his qualifications for "Father of Our Country," failed miserably as "Man of the House," because he neglected such household necessities as closets, and bathroom facilities. But the Fullers hire help (Bob Anderson and Janice Olson) who soon run them into bankruptcy. Their daughter (Ripple Langdon) elopes with a traveling actor, which sends Mrs. Traveling Actor (Pat Taylor) and daughter's boy friend (Hank Ramp) off to hot pursuit.

The Fullers' brat nephew (Jimmie Lynch) teams up with arch villain (George Nelson) to foreclose the mortgage. Then, when it seems things just CAN'T get any worse, they do with the arrival of Uncle Stanley (Jim Shepardson) who drops into their laps a most peculiar problem. No sooner is one problem solved, when a new one arises, abetted by neighbors and friends (Marilyn Devich, Jack Harris, Janis Henley, Barbara McBain, Jay Propst, Nancy Daniel).

Tickets to the last three-act play of the high school season can be purchased from any senior or at the auditorium the evening of the performances.

Community Club Renders Service To Campbell

The Campbell Community Club prepared dinner for the Lions' Club at the Country Woman's Club House February 26. Dinner for the Lions twice a month is a regular activity of the Community Club; the proceeds are used for the many service projects of the group.

The Community Club also helps Visiting Nurses, for whom they fold newspaper receptacles for bedside use and provide diapers for babies whose families are ill-prepared for new arrivals.

Organizing for the Red Cross Blood Bank is one of the club's chief contributions to the community. When the Red Cross Moble Unit comes to Campbell, the Community Club organizes the work, notifies the volunteer typist and volunteers to work in the kitchen, reminds blood donors and provides baby sitters. For the February visit of the Mobile Unit, the Community Club phoned everyone listed in the Campbell directory. After the donations the club sends thank-you cards to those who have given. Mrs. Verle Grizzle is chairman of the Community Club's Blood Bank program.

Service goes hand in hand with pleasure, according to the twenty-three members of the Community Club. The group welcomes suggestions as to worthwhile causes to which they may contribute their time and talents. The club's president is Mrs. William Byer.

re appeared in the February ue of The Campbell Press a addressed to "Dear Taxpay- nd signed by Gilbert A. La- Mr. Lathrop's letter was n in a down-to-earth style a welcome change from edygook" we are forced de through so often these Lathrop's refreshing letter fine example of healthy citi- erest in civic matters, name- proposed incorporation of ell. Since I am a candidate e office of city clerk, I am interested in his views.

ever, as I read his letter, it e apparent to me that Mr. p had been badly misinform- ch of his argument against oration was based upon a table of figures which he describes as the "cost of running Mountain View."

Upon investigating the "Revised Budget of the city of Mountain View," I found on page 4 the same column of figures that Mr. Lathrop used. But these figures are NOT the "cost of running the city of Mountain View," but came under the heading, "Estimated Revenue for the year 1950-51."

In plain words, Mr. Lathrop's figures were those of the estimated INCOME of the city of Mountain View, and had nothing to do with the COST of running the city!

Discovery of this error in Mr. Lathrop's well-meaning letter prompted me to check further.

According to Mr. Lathrop, the sum of $402,347 which Mountain View budgeted for the year 1950-51 came from the "pocketbooks of homeowners like you and I." Actually, Mountain View spent $373,948.20 in the year 1950-51. Of this amount, only $58,246.75 came from current property taxes.

Let's put it this way—Property taxes in Mountain View made up only about 15 cents out of each dollar that was spent in 1950-51!

It might be well to note just how a city budget operates. For example — Mountain View spent $106,953.62 to operate its water system in 1950-51. Income to the city from operation of the water system was $111,065.83.

In other words, Mountain View operated its water system at a profit to the city of $4,112.21!

I point this out to clear up any misunderstandings that may be held regarding a budget. A sum appearing on the budget as a cost is not only balanced by income, but sometimes, as in the case of Mountain View's water system, is OVERBALANCED by the return from operation of the system ... and a profit to the city is the result!

Any such profit, or surplus, is caried over to the following year's budget. Mountain View started the year 1950-51 with a surplus on hand of $144,531.36!

Mr. Lathrop implied that Campbell, if incorporated, would necessarily spend as much as Mountain View, a community of about the same size and population. According to James H. Thomas, city administrator of Mountain View, even cities of like size and population sitting side by side, such as Mountain View and Sunnyvale, cannot be compared regarding their needs and wants.

Bear in mind that the city of Mountain View was incorporated in the year 1902, fifty years ago! Obviously the sums taken in and spent there cannot be compared with what Campbell will take in and spend.

Mr. Lathrop also stated that "all of our street maintenance and our policing are now done by the county." While this is true, we should not let the fact lull us into inactivity. The League of California Cities is sponsoring a state bill to prevent county boards of supervisors from furnishing municipal type services to unincorporated communities such as Campbell unless all costs are paid by the area served.

In other words, we will pay for these services whether we incorporate or not. Is it not better to pay for them to be handled as we in Campbell wish than to pay our money to the county and have decisions handed down from outside our city?

In regard to Mr. Lathrop's justifiable concern over his right to keep chickens, ducks or rabbits in his right to keep chickens, ducks or rabbits in his own back yard, let me say that incorporation can have no effect. For example, in Mountain View, which Mr. Lathrop chose as a sample incorporated city, there is an ordinance permitting chickens and rabbits within the city.

No, Mr. Lathrop, incorporation is not an attempt by "professional politicians" to deprive Campbell citiezns of their rights. On the contrary, it is a movement to insure your right to govern yourself through locally elected officials whose job it will be to carry out the desires of the citizens.

I submit this letter, Mr. Editor, in the sincere hope that it may clear up some of the misinformation that exists among our voters regarding the issue of incorporation.

In one thing, I agree with Mr. Lathrop wholeheartedly, cast your vote in the March 11 election. And I sincerely urge you to safeguard your rights by VOTING FOR INCORPORATION.

Respectfully yours,
HOWARD F. SMITH,
Candidate for City Clerk.

To the Editor:

I have been reading, with some concern, the letter in your last issue from the "Committee Against Incorporation" and signed by Gilbert A. Lathrop.

Do you suppose it is true that the "Committee for Incorporation" is a "Gang of professional politicians, and all have an iron of some kind in a fire, and are going to 'feather their nests off the rest of the community'." Sounds terrible, doesn't it? But Webster says a Politician is a Statesman, which sounds much more respectable to me.

Well, as one of the aforesaid "gang," and as an aspirant for one of the offices to be filled by the votes of the electors at the coming election, I wish to say that I have lived in this community for fifty-eight years and no one has ever found out before that I was a "professional politician out to feather my nest at their expense."

During about thirty of these fifty-eight that I have lived here, I have served as a Fire Commissioner (without one red cent of salary and no feathers for that nest, either).

Some person's mentality doesn't seem to be able to grasp the idea that anyone could do something without being paid for it in some way (feathers, perhaps). During my thirty years' connection with the Campbell Volunteer Fire Department, it has been composed entirely of volunteers who draw no pay for their services either, and I am glad to hear a word of appreciation for their work from Mr. Lathrop.

Many times these men have had to leave their work or employment to answer the fire alarm and many a night they have left their beds or fireside to save someone's house or property from destruction.

Through their efforts, the insurance rates in the Campbell Fire District are materially lower than in adjoining territory protected by other departments. And yet Mr. Lathrop moans that we will have to pay salaries to half a dozen firemen. Well, why not? Are we going on forever letting George do it for us? I don't hear any offers of assistance from Mr. Lathrop's Secret Committee Against Incorporation.

Perhaps you didn't know it, but Mr. Lathrop is a writer of these thrilling Western Fiction Stories, which, perhaps, accounts for the lurid possibilities facing us if incorporation is carried.

Perhaps that acounts for his statement that "this gang" are running a ticket of candidates for jobs as "Mayor, Councilman, etc."

Mr. Harmon, Chairman of the Committee for Incorporation, has stated emphatically on several occasions, that they are not interested in the election of any particular candidate, but are interested only in the formation of that "Nice little City of Campbell, Sixth Class."

So-o-o, whether you are for it, or against it, you will need a City Treasurer, so go way down to the bottom of the ballot and put your cross for E. C. Merrill for Treasurer.

Signed, E. C. MERRILL

To: Gilbert Lathrop for the Committee Against Incorporation of Campbell:

I feel your letter of February 28 demands an answer, first because of rather strong statements concerning the integrity of the "Incorporators" (and I am one of them)— and second, to put facts before the public in the place of the so-called reasons you dreamed up!

Primarily I believe we are all in the same boat when it comes to paying taxes! If there is anyone who enjoys paying them, they surely belong in Ripley's column. None of us on tne Incorporation Committee want higher taxes any more than you or the next fellow. We feel that to protect ourselves, the better move is to have a closer touch of the controlling body that decides what local taxes should or should not be levied. Evidently you did not read last year's legislative actions—one of which was INCREASED TAXATION for UNINCORPORATED AREAS. This passed the lower House and was just barely defeated in the upper House. As per precedent it should return this year and if it follows along the usual pattern, will pass both houses. Would you rather have this than our own governing body?

I, personally, take extreme exceptions to your remarks, "you and I who own homes in this very beautiful little community, are up against a gang of professional politicians. Nearly every one of the incorporators has an iron of some kind in the fire"—and further on "this gang who are bound and determined to make a nice juicy dent in your billfolds are not giving a whoop about making a 'City Sixth Class' out of Campbell. They're out to feather their own personal nests at your expense." Those statements, Mr. Lathrop, are pure malicious fabrication.

Just what have you done to date to aid in civic or public affairs? Not one darn thing. Check the roster for the Committee for Campbell Incorporation and you will find there isn't one of them who hasn't donated his time and energy on numerous occasions to be of assistance. Just recently two people spent two weeks in the rain registering voters so that if the incorporation did carry the coffers would be increased by approximately $6,000.00. What did they get for it? A bill to replace some of their clothing that became so saturated that it couldn't be used. I will admit that payment was received in praise and sincere appreciation from those people who did register. Yet you have the audacity and effrontery to write a letter such as you did.

So you claim that we cry juvenile delinquency when San Jose is worse with "jillions" of policemen falling all over each other. If another city or town is better or worse than our own, are we supposed to close our eyes, ears, and minds and be content on merely drawing comparisons. We had cases of attempted rape, assault and battery on the streets, purse snatching, peeping toms, pilferage and theft, arson, damage to buildings and property, death on our streets by hot rod maniacs. Are we supposed to close our eyes to that and say it's only natural — it happens elsewhere. A few policemen would help a lot. I'm man enough to protect myself, but I have a wonderful wife and daughter as well as many friends in our community that I believe are deserving of protection.

It is too bad that whoever supplied you with the figures for your so called COST of operating Mountain View didn't check his source record. It happens that your figures were the estimated REVENUE received for the 1951 year. I believe you realize that cost is money out of the pocket whereas revenue is money into the pocket. You must admit that there is a slight difference.

"Under an incorporated jurisdiction you are going to be told what you can and can't do in your own back yard," so you say. I have frequented the County Planning Commission, and the Board of Supervisors bull sessions, and if you think they don't tell you what you can do, you're badly mistaken, and they can change their minds and opinions and pass the buck as many times as they want, and we have no recourse. We would prefer having a friend of the people of Campbell, in a local board, aware of local conditions, passing on rules and regulations than some politician on the County boards. With local persons you could call them by first names and at least be treated as an equal.

You mention the scare of being a part of San Jose. For your information, there have been two separate petitions sent to the county asking for entry into San Jose. The hearing for one of these is scheduled for April 21. These petitions are for two large subdivisions north of Cambrian Park. This was publicized in the San Jose papers, plus, get this, it would be necessary to get together with Los Gatos for some of the property would be inside the three mile limit of Los Gatos. Visualize what that means. Strip annexation south of Campbell. I don't want to be any part of San Jose, taxwise or any other way.

As per your, "This gang actually so cock sure of succe this time that they are even running a ticket of candidates for jobs as mayor, councilman, et cetera. They don't want to waste no time before digging into your pocketbooks." First, there is no candidate running for any office that is sponsored by the Committee for Campbell Incorporation. Second, you should know, but evidently do not, that on any election for incorporation, the legal procedure is to have the candidates and the issue on the same ballot. It is too bad that with all your prattling you didn't secure one bit of facts.

When asked who comprised your so-called Committee Against Incorporation, your answer was there is about thirty of us, but we can't divulge any names. I thought secret organizations were considered illegal and Un-American. On our letterhead the names of the members of the committee appears and this has been before the eys of the gneral public all the time. We are not ashamd of ourselves, we are open and above board.

If you will check that list of the Committee for Campbell Incorporation, you will find that by far the largest majority is made up of old time residents who have always been and still are trusted and respected citizens of Campbell. For the few newcomers, of which I am one, only having lived here five years, I can boastfully say there is none of us that hasn't stepped in at any time when asked, to assist in plays, skits, parades, meetings, etc., to help our community. There hasn't been one bit of remuneration received nor will there ever be. If you are any kind of a man at all, I belive you should apologize to everyone you had reference to in your distorted and insulting letter.

Let the people of Campbell make up their own minds to what they want, but don't try to sell them something that smells and is absolutely and completely false.

Signed: BERT L. LEGG

Cub Pack 9 Has Musical Meeting

"Shrimp boats is a-comin,'," according to the Cub scout band of Mrs. John Duncan's Den, who entertained Pack 9 at the pack meeting in the Congregational Church February 29. The members of Mrs. Joseph Hoeman's den contributed a clever Chinese musical skit to the program.

Mr. Mervin Willoughby, cubmaster, conducted the business meeting, during which awards were made for achievements by the cubs. It was announced that Pack 9 won first award in the Old Settlers' Day Juvenile Division for their characterization of pioneers. Approximately 40 boys took part in the entry, with covered wagons and cardboard horses.

Comedy films and refreshments completed the evening.

The kite contest to be held on March 22 on the high school grounds was announced. Kites must be home made, and prizes will be awarded for the most outstanding.

PANTHER 33-32 WIN KNOCKS BUCLETS OUT OF POSSIBLE TIE FOR FIRST PLACE; VARSITY TRAILS BEHIND, 31-42

Campbell High 130's lost a basketball heartbreaker last Friday when Santa Clara High's 130's Jimmy Oliver sneaker in an overtime free throw to win, 33-32. Campbell's loss knocked the Buc 130's out of a possible tie for the lead, and set Santa Clara in a tie for second with Campbell. At the end of the regulation playing time, the score stood at 32-32. John Zambetti hit ten points for the winners. Harris, Campbell was high point man for the losers, with eleven points.

In the heavyweight division, the local varsity, though leading 9-8 at the end of the first period, couldn't quite stand up to the enemy high point men Nick Barisich and Bill Heckman, who poured in 14 and 10 points respectively.

Campbell High Swim Team Starts Season

Fred Gugat, swimming coach of Campbell High's embryo swim aggregation, in an attitude typical of all coaches, reached for the crying towel when asked about the chances for his swim team for the coming season.

"The team is a sort of pioneer venture," Gugat said, "Most of the boys are beginners, and I won't know exactly what I have until the season is a little farther advanced."

The season opened yesterday when Campbell faced Fremont and San Jose State frosh at San Jose State at 3:30.

Karl Fredericks Family To Live In Alaskan Town

Mrs. Karl Fredericks and her son, David, will join Mr. Karl Fredericks, son of Mrs. Henri Quetin, in their new home at Cordova, Alaska, on April 6. They will go by plane, as there is no road into Cordova, which may be reached only by boat or plane.

Mr. Fredericks has been in Alaska since January and has been purchasing a home while establishing a repair garage, the only one in Cordova, for boats as well as automobiles. There are 12 fish canneries in the village, and the fishing season lasts from April to September.

Mrs. Quetin receives detailed letters from her son picturing life in the far north. Cordova is a small, unincorporated town. There is no police force, only a sheriff. Offenders against society are given "blue tickets," to deport them to the United States.

There are hospitals, lodges, a high school, a weekly newspaper, and a representative from the federal Agricultural Extension to supervise sewing classes and other instruction.

Father Hubbard, in his northward trips, often stops at Cordova, according to the Fredericks.

Mrs. Karl Fredericks has been an active member of WCSC in Campbell. Mrs. Quetin is looking forward to visiting the Fredericks family in their new environment.

SJS Production

Two San Jose State College students from Campbell have been chosen to play supporting roles in the forthcoming all-student production "Kiss Me Hello".

Rehearsals have just begun for this year's Spartan Revelries, which will be presented May 6-10.

Campbell students in the cast are Charles D. Knowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knowles of 140 W. Rincon avenue, and Orme Shockley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shockley of 66 El Caminito street.

Knowles is a junior music major, and Shockley is a sophomore merchandising major at SJSC.

Pundita Circle Has Meeting Ash Wednesday

Mrs. C. H. Davidson's home on Alice Way was the setting for the Pundita Circle's regular meeting February 27. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Les Davidson of Santa Cruz. Dessert was served in the sun room at tables decorated with centerpieces of spring flowers and dainty nut cups. Fifteen active members, two associate members and three guests were present.

As the theme of the meeting was religion, in keeping with the date, members responded to roll call with verses from the Bible. Mrs. L. A. Thomas, County Federation Bible chairman, reviewed Bruce Barton's reverent novel, "The Man Nobody Knows."

The next meeting of Pundita Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Ethelda Minehart on San Tomas Avenue.

The Auxiliary met February 27 at the Country Woman's Club House, with Mrs. Harold Strickland, first vice-president, officiating in the absence of Mrs. L. C. Fairchild, president.

Reports were made on the parties given by the group at the Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital, and on Auxiliary participation in Old Settlers' Day activities.

Posters for the Poppy Day sale are now being prepared by Campbell High School students, it was reported.

The business meeting was followed by a social meeting with the American Legion. Refreshments were served and bingo was enjoyed.

Mrs. Clarence Helmbold, chairman of the party committee, was assisted by Mrs. Henri Quetin, Mrs. Rexroat, Mrs. Effie McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Les Titus.

WOMAN OF YEAR NOMINATIONS

Mrs. Roland B. Davis, 4030 Moorpark Avenue, publicity chairman for the JayCettes, announces that nominations for San Jose's "Young Woman of the Year," will be open until March 15. Any Campbell woman between the ages of 21 and 36, who did volunteer service work in San Jose during 1951, may be a candidate for the award, the first of its kind to be offered iin the United States.

Official nomination forms may be obtained by calling Mrs. Frank Bonanno at CYpress 5-8892.

At the "Young Woman of the Year Banquet," Monday evening, March 31, at Hawaiian Gardens, the winner will be announced and presented with her award.

Half-Way Mark Is Reached In Guide-Dog Goal

Mrs. Edward Nelson, 646 Robin Lane, Campbell, chairman of the membership campaign in Santa Clara county for Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., reports that the half-way mark on the 1952 goal has been reached. This corresponds percentage-wise to the amount raised throughout the Bay area counties, where a total of $70,000 has been half met.

William F. Johns, director of the non-profit organization, says the $1,500 cost for each blind man-guide dog unit is due to the long training period both man and dog have to undergo.

The blind person pays nothing, either for the dog or the four-week residence period at the San Rafael school.

Captains appointed in county communities assisting Mrs. Nelson include: Mrs. Henry Frank, Los Gatos; Mrs. George Doan, Gilroy; Mrs. William Gray, Santa Clara; Mrs. Richard Morton and Mrs. A. L. Gladding, Campbell; Mrs. Hart S. Tantau, Cupertino; Mrs. Donald J. Ward, Morgan Hill; Mrs. M. M. Daubin, Mountain View; Mrs. Donald W. Hutchison and Mrs. G. B. Stibolt, Saratoga, and Mrs. H. J. Diesner, Sunnyvale.

HI-FACULTY WHIPS VARSITY IN SC WARMUP

Campbell Union High School faculty whipped the High School varsity basketeers recently in the school gym 60-37 with Bert Robinson, dumping 20 points. Jr. Morgan with his height scooped rebounds for many points which, coupled with Bert Robinsons drive, made it almost no contest.

Tom Hill and Jack Harris were high scorers for the varsity with 7 points apiece.

The games acted as a warm up for the game with Santa Clara last Friday at Campbell when both varsity and 530's met.

The Lightweights, currently tied for first place in the league with Mt. View, will also tackle Santa Clara. In the last outing Santa Clara beat Mt. View and Mt. View took Campbell, which means the Campbell—Santa Clara crucial will be an exciting contest.

more of the aspirants are eminently qualified to manage the public works department of Campbell. A capable and energetic councilman could save the taxpayers a considerable sum of maney by taking an active interest in this work. May I suggest that the electorate give this matter careful consideration.

POLICE PROTECTION — Judging from the experience of other newly incorporated cities, it is most likely that the Campbell city council will not have sufficient funds with which to emlpoy the desired number of police officers at the beginning of city operations.

The minimum number of officers required is not an easy question to answer. Some of the new cities depended entirely on special arrangements with the county sheriff; possibly Campbell can do likewise. Usually, the well established cities employ one patrolman for each 1,000 to 1,250 of city population. Others seem to consider 1,500 to 2,000 as a reasonable ratio. There are, of course, localities where two or more officers per thousand population would not be excessive, but Campbell certainly is not confronted with similar requirements.

Federal and city enforcement officials with long and varied police experience state that the mere presence of a police force in a community has the direct effect of preventing disorderly conduct. A consensus of their conclusions seems to indicate a reduction of at least half in congested city areas and in excess of 75 percentum for communities like Campbell.

Temporarily at least, jail service could undoubtedly be secured under contract arrangements with the county or a nearby city. And, the personnel requirements and the cost of jail service should be quite moderate if citation and summons methods were employed wherever possible in lieu of booking prisoners, and if, persons placed under arrest are cited for violations of state laws (whenever reasonable) instead of city ordinances.

The foregoing is in no way intended as an exhaustive treatment of this subject, but inasmuch as only the incoming city council has jurisdiction there is little to be gained through further discussion. Except that, in behalf of the entire community, the writer hopes the voters will appoint one council member who will take an active interest in operation of this highly important city department, more especially during the formation period.

FIRE PROTECTION — The Campbell fire department is well established and will be supported by current assessment of ad valorem taxes. Consequently, there need be no radical changes in present methods of operation until such time as the city council decides otherwise.

OTHER SERVICES — Because of limited allotment of space, no comment is offered herein relating to such city services as conservation of health, sanitation and promotion of cleanliness, charities and corrections, education, recreation, and zoning regulations. However, as a temporary expedient, present county regulations could be adopted.

Local Grange To Save Trees As Civic Project

Orchard City Grange has voted as this year's community project, the preservation and improvement of trees along Winchester Road between Hacienda Avenue and Pollard road.

Grange members will be asked to volunteer time to work on the "Beautify Campbell" project on March 8, a spokesman reports.

Other matters discussed at the recent meeting included:

1. Approval of a $25 war bond to be awarded the high school student receiving the highest honors at this year's graduation ceremonies.

2. Discussion of five applications for membership.

A potluck dinner preceded the short business meeting after which members and guests enjoyed folk dancing to the music of Mervin Keesling recordings.

News Deadline

On January 25 the Campbell Press advanced its publication day from Friday to Thursday of each week. This has upped the deadline for sport news and for society items to 10 a.m. TUESDAY of each week.

Lou Murphy, the new editor, asks reporters to mail or phone news of this nature in, on or before this time to insure its publication in the regular Thursday edition of the Press.

Campbell GOP Lays Plans For Precinct Work

Plans for precinct work in connection with coming primary and general election were laid last week by members of the Campbell Republican Assembly and Campbell Women's Council meeting in the Campbell Grammar school.

Under their joint sponsorship, a voter survey was undertaken during the week, to determine Republican strength in Campbell area. This was followed by registration check to see that all eligible voters are registered.

Precinct activity will follow in lining up membership in these areas for the elections. Co-chairmen for the project are Mrs. Lee Critchlow, representing the essembly, and Mrs. Ralph Hyde, from the women's council.

They in turn will appoint members from the precincts. Precincts to be covered include Union 1, 7, and 9; Vineland 1, 6, 7, 9, and 10; Hamilton 1, 2, and 3, and San Tomas.

Speaker at the meeting was Attorney Bruce Allen of San Jose who discussed the Hoover Commission report. John R. Kahle assembly president, presided.

CAMBRIAN PARK TO BE SITE OF NEWEST CHURCH

A three-acre tract, donated by Cambrian Builders, Inc., at Wyrick Avenue and Gunstan Way, will be the site of the Methodist Community Church of Cambrian, a spokesman reports.

A meeting, presided over by Dr. John R. Wilkins, superintendent of the San Jose Methodist district, was held last week at 242 Leigh Avenue, to organize the new church.

A steering committee was appointed, headed by Galen Thompson.

Plans for financing the building and schedules for Sunday school for all ages were discussed.

would be used. This is done by passing the names to operators at the switchboard. The operator repeats what she thinks she heard, and a tally is kept. Names with the smallest percentage of error and also generally acceptable in other respects, are finally selected.

That's how FRanklin 8 was chosen as the prefix name for Campbell.

of OPPORTUNITY, wisely governed, economically governed, safely governed. As an example: the growth of the Campbell Telephone Exchange since 1940, percentagewise, has been FAR GREATER than that of ANY OTHER EXCHANGE in the entire Northern California District of the Bell Telephone Company. The local Postoffice has doubled in deliveries, and then doubled again, and again. Serving approximately 3500 people in 1942, is is now serving approximately 20,000. Postal receipts have increased more than 525 percent during the same period. All of those people are potential customers if the business is here to serve them.

"What it costs to operate Mountain View, San Jose or San Franciscocisco has no relation to the City of Campbell unless those costs are broken down into unit of cost per person. The Mountain View figures published recently under "Letters to the Editor" in the Campbell Press are identical, figure for figure, dollar for dollar with Mountain View's Revised Budget of ESTIMATED REVENUE for 1950-51. For instance: of the total of $402,347.00, only $60,000 of item 1, General Fund, $83,440, is estimated revenue from property tax.

"Item 2 of the Budget, $120,000 is actually estimated revenue from the operation of the municipal water system. $95,000 is estimated revenue from sale of water to consumers.

"Item 3, $80,070, is estimated revenue from sewer connections, garbage disposal, etc.

"Item 4, $48,300, is estimated revenue from State refund of Alcoholic Beverage License Tax, and transfer from the General Fund, etc.

"The same applies to every item in the budget, including $10,000 estimated to be received from the State of California as State Refund of their proportion of Motor Vehicle License Fees collected by the State.

"We assume and believe that the new City Council will make a budget of estimated revenue, and, allowing for a reserve above outgo, operate within that budget. If Campbell is able to hire and pay for, only one, two, or three full time police officers, that will be exactly one, two or three more than we presently have. The number of police officers in Los Gatos, Mountain View or Santa Clara has no relation of course to the number Campbell may need or be able to pay for. Each city has its own particular needs. It is our opinion that Campbell's needs are most regulatory, but we do need that.

Refering to Mr. Kerr's figures: If the City Council finds it wise in their judgment to use the maximum $1.00 real property tax rate: After subtracting the .68c we now are taxed on the various districts, a net increase of .32c will remain. On the average homestead in Campbell, assuming an assessed valuation of $2,500, which is surely hig henough for the average, the net increase in taxes would be $8.00 per year. WILL IT NOT BE WORTH IT? Actually, the net savings per household in gas and electric rates, which applies to property owners and non-property owners alike, will no doubt exceed $8.00.

"A part of our County Tax Rate is, of course, for the maintenance and operation of our streets, but it is county wide and may be used, at the discretion of the Supervisors in any part of the unincorporated area in the county. As a corporate city, we will have subventions from the State Motor Vehicle and Gasoline Tax funds to use for that purpose.

"The nine incorporated cities of the county now contribute to the cost of roads, streets and sheriff's protection in the unincorporated areas, and that contribution to the heavily populated unincorporated areas is what the League of California Cities is protesting and why they are backing the proposed law to place that expense on those areas.

"We know there are examples of city mis-management, but that need not, and we believe will not, apply to Campbell. We believe that Campbell, wit hone of the finest school systems in the state, fine churches and lots of them, and a citizenry noted for their wholehearted backing of those schools and any and all worthwhile community projects, has the brightest future of any area in the Santa Clara Valley, and we believe the citizens of Campbell are this time in a mood to take the first big step toward that future. In any event, regardless of the outcome of next Tuesday's elections, we are still backing Campbel against the field."
